Introduction

In today's economy, smart shopping isn't just about finding what you need – it's about getting the best value for your money. This guide will help you master the art of saving through strategic deal-hunting and coupon usage.

Understanding Different Types of Deals

1. Percentage-Off Deals

- Direct discounts ranging from 10% to 70% off regular prices
- Most common during seasonal sales and holidays
- Often stackable with other promotions

2. Buy-One-Get-One (BOGO)

- Purchase one item at full price and receive another at a discount
- Can be BOGO free, 50% off, or other variations
- Especially valuable for regularly used items

3. Cashback Offers

- Receive a percentage of your purchase back
- May come through credit cards, apps, or store loyalty programs
- Often requires registration or membership

Maximizing Your Savings

Tips for Success

1. Stack Your Savings

- o Combine store coupons with manufacturer coupons
- o Use cashback apps alongside store discounts
- o Apply credit card rewards programs

1. Timing Is Everything
 - o Shop during major sale events
 - o Look for end-of-season clearance
 - o Sign up for price drop alerts
2. Stay Organized
 - o Keep digital copies of coupons
 - o Track expiration dates
 - o Create a shopping calendar

Digital Couponing Strategy

Best Practices

- Subscribe to Dealsarium newsletters
