

Smart Hacks to Boost Your Chances of a Confirmed Train Ticket

Here are some smart hacks that can increase the chances of a confirmed train ticket:

1. Use the IRCTC Rail Connect app instead of the website as the former is often found to be faster in peak booking hours.
2. Pre-save the list of passengers using the Master List service to reduce time during the tatkal ticket booking.
3. Instead of using Card Payment choose IRCTC eWallet or other UPI payment services.
4. Opt for Vikalp Scheme to enhance ticket confirmation chances even upon getting a Waiting List ticket.

RailMitra Tools That Help You Book Confirmed Train Tickets

RailMitra, your ultimate friend of the train, understands your problems and the issues associated with a Confirmed train ticket booking. Hence, it has launched several help services that reduces the stress of the passengers:

- Train Seat Availability: With the help of train seat availability one can check the number of seats available for booking. Using this service passengers can avoid getting Waitlisted.
- PNR Status check: Once you get a Waiting List or a RAC ticket, you need to check it again and again to see if there is any development in the booking status. PNR Status check is a service that allows you to check your booking status in real time.
- Train Schedule: If your train ticket doesn't get Confirmed while the departure time looms closer, you need to book an alternative ticket. Train Schedule is a service that helps you look at the train timings. By looking at the train timings and routes we can compare and decide which train is best for us.

- Live Train Running Status: This is another service that describes train timings in real time. If there are any delays or before time arrivals with the train, this is updated duly with live train status.

Conclusion

Securing a Confirmed train ticket in India can seem like a Herculean task. By respecting the element of time and booking the ticket at the right day and time, it can be the difference between a confirmed and waiting list ticket. Book tickets during the best days and available time slots.

Using helpful services at RailMitra we can make our journey comfortable and easier. So, don't leave your booking to luck, follow smart booking strategies and stay ahead of your journey, always.

RAILMITRA